THE REASON WHY

Debra Taubenslag

Imagine what it will be like when your book club has discussions about if they have lived before and who they were before they were themselves.

I wrote THE REASON WHY which is a compilation of people with these real life experiences.

As a guest of your book club, I will lead you and your friends on a stunning adventure into sacred realms.

Ask your library or bookstore to order the book for your club.

Contact me: deb@debrataubenslag.com or log on to www.debrataubenslag.com for the library & author sheets, and discussion & author questions.

I can't wait to share this adventure of self awareness with you and your book club!
