

Bio

SHORT BIO:

Debra Taubenslag, The Transformational Mentor, facilitates transformational change by awakening parents of special needs children to their highest potential and calling utilizing spiritual hypnosis, healing, and intuitive guidance. She specializes in helping her clients recapture balance, joy, and creativity by acknowledging and reclaiming their spiritual selves in order to live a meaningful, and purposeful life.

Born in New Brunswick, New Jersey, Debra Taubenslag holds a Doctorate in Clinical Hypnosis, and two teaching degrees; Special Education, and Speech and Theater. She has also been on the faculty at a community college as a teacher of Hypnosis and Massage Therapy.

Debra has gained much experience in the area of public speaking and has presented worldwide presentations to corporations, holistic centers and hypnosis conventions. She is the author of two books. Her new release, NO STONE UNTURNED: How My Special Needs Child and I Transformed Against All Odds was written to help caregivers like herself find meaning and thrive. Her first book, Not Crazy Just Enlightened published in 2000, resulted in a national nineteen-city book tour where she educated the public by conducting metaphysical stage hypnosis shows.

Through the development of her own spiritual awareness, her mission is to help people discover their true purpose, why they are here, and what they need to accomplish.
